

Cleveland & Durham Joint External Ethics Committee

Membership Criteria

Knowledge and experience:

- Relevant qualification(s) and/or proven experience in any of the below listed areas would be desirable but not essential
  1. Community service/partnership working/voluntary work.
  2. Business/Commerce
  3. Applied Ethics
  4. Law
  5. Media
  6. Medicine
- You should have a knowledge and understanding of ethical principles, and be able to apply them to the policing
- A good working knowledge, or be prepared to develop knowledge, of how an Ethics Committee operates or experience as a member of a professional body or non executive membership of a relevant board would be desirable

Skills and attributes:

- Must not be currently serving with or employed by any Chief Constable or Police and Crime Commissioner
- Possess good verbal and written communication skills, to be able to articulate, interpret and summarise complex discussion
- Ability to work as part of a team
- Self motivated and able to think independently, critically and analytically.
- Flexible approach and adaptable to change - willingness and ability to attend meetings when required
- Acts with respect and compassion, embraces equality and diversity

Desirable Criteria:

- Current or previous membership of a relevant ethics group or similar
- Active participant in an area of work, or interest in, which ethics is a core dimension

Cleveland & Durham Joint External Ethics Committee

Selection:

- Members will be selected, by the Deputy Chief Constables of Durham and Cleveland, based on these criteria.

Tenure:

Minimum one year, maximum of three years